

Step1. Connect each half of the bases together using joining bars.

Headboard holes are located on both halves of the base, this helps facilitate the use of a headboard no matter which way the bases are put together.